

FINA CASAL MARTÍNEZ

Fina Casal Martínez is an economist, with experience in business management and administration, and in cultural management in the private and public sectors. She starts her professional career in 1990 and since 2011 she has headed the University of Vigo Foundation. The highlights of her career are the management of Sargadelos Gallery (Ferrol, Spain), with responsibilities in management, personnel management and cultural programming; and the position of Chief of Cabinet of the Department of Culture and Sport of the Galician Government (Xunta de Galicia), carrying out group management and coordination tasks, strategic planning, and direction and development of projects, receptions and events. Her initial training as an economist was supplemented with several specialization courses in the area of business administration (MBA), team leadership and financial management in the cultural sector.