

Summary

Following the vision and mission of CERCLES Focus Group III (Teacher Training, Teacher Development & Staff Exchange; http://www.cercles.org/images/FG_Teacher%20Training_Mission.pdf),

Language Centres frequently invest great efforts and resources, both human and financial, in identifying needs and designing their own programmes. Therefore, it is expedient to exchange ideas about EMI programmes with the aim of joining and maximising efforts. This focus group will be the forum for discussing, among others, the following issues related to the aforementioned type of training:

- Mapping the current situation of EMI
- Promoting good practices
- Sharing resources
- Effective collaboration tailoring offer to needs
